

CALL FOR SYMPOSIA AND WORKSHOPS
FOR THE 13TH INTERNATIONAL MAMMALOGICAL CONGRESS
Deadline Extended – 2 September 2022

Proposals for Symposia and Workshops for the 13th International Mammalogical Congress (IMC-13) are now being accepted. The IMC-13 meeting will take place 14 to 20 July 2023 at the Dena'ina Civic and Convention Center in Anchorage, Alaska. The meeting will be hosted by the American Society of Mammalogists. The proposal guidelines for symposia and workshops are located on the meeting website (<https://imc13.com/>).

To be considered for the program, proposals for symposia and workshops must be submitted by 2 September 2022. This is the extended deadline. Completed proposals should be submitted using the online application form (<https://tinyurl.com/2p8b99cu>). Decisions regarding acceptance will be made by 1 October 2022. Please direct ALL symposium and workshop questions to imc-13-proposals@umich.edu.
